KIDNAPPED TOT IS FOUND SAFE IN PHILADELPHIA

Police and Volunteers Comb Back Areas for the 5-Year-Old Girl

A 13-STATE ALARM

Jane Franz Said to Have Been Lured Into Car by Man

By International News Service
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 10.—Little, dimpled five-year-old Jane Franz, kidnapped while playing in Trenton, N. J., yesterday, was found safe today in Philadelphia and her abductor was taken into custody by police. Identity of the alleged kidnapper was withheld pending a hearing at the Philadelphia police station. Apprehension of the swarthy, sharp-featured man who purportedly lured Jane into his car yesterday afternoon ended an 11-state police search for the pair.

Police and civilian volunteers combed the back areas of Trenton through the night and into the early morning hours today in a desperate search for a five-year-old girl who was snatched from the street near her home.

John, the father, is employed in a Trenton bottling company. His wife, Mary, works in a grocery market in the neighborhood.

Both parents were at work when the abduction took place shortly after 5 p. m. last evening.

According to witnesses, a car pulled up at the curb near the group of playing youngsters. A man called Jane by her first name, and the child approached the car.

Some witnesses say she entered the car willingly while others claim she was dragged into the vehicle.

Bristol To Have Active Share in Blood Donations

Bristol is to have an active share in the national Red Cross Blood Donor program. This program has been set up to do four things: To save lives and alleviate suffering; to assist in reduction of current high accident casualty rate; for advancement of research in the field of preventive medicine; for purpose of national defense.

A meeting has been scheduled for Thursday next at 7:30 o'clock in the Travel Club Home, 321 Cedar St.; Mrs. Harry T. Neher, chairman of blood donor program for the Bristol district, has sent letters to many organizations in Bristol, asking cooperation of these groups in having a representative present. Any who are interested, and any who have not received notice of this meeting, are urged to see that representative is present.

A thorough discussion will be held at that time to familiarize residents of Bristol with this blood donor program, looking forward to the day in the near future when the "bloodmobile" will come to Bristol, and donors will be needed. Through this project any one, without cost, can obtain from the Red Cross blood, or its many derivatives, in times of accident or sickness.

Any organization desiring to obtain further information regarding this meeting is urged to phone the local Red Cross office, Miss Dunn, 3684, or Mrs. Neher, 2540.

GLEANED BY SCRIBES

Dr. Stanley M. Daubert, a member of the faculty of Oglethorpe University, Atlanta, Ga., was guest speaker at the meeting of Solebury Farmers Club in Trinity Hall, Solebury, Saturday evening.

Serving as hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Carroll B. Price and Mr. and Mrs. R. Moore Price.

In an interesting manner Dr. Daubert spoke of the problems of education today, and explained what Oglethorpe University has done in an attempt to solve them. The university, now 115 years old, served as a barracks during the Civil War, and it was there that General Sherman billeted his troops.

At Oglethorpe the students are required to view all sides of problems and not parts of them. The students, said Dr. Daubert, get their education in the cafeteria way or they can select what they want.

Enrollment at the university is limited to 300, and there is an instructor for every nine students. The curriculum is on a divisional basis and it emphasizes human understanding and good citizenship.

At the close of his talk, Dr. Daubert conducted a question and answer period.

During the business session Morgan Wolfram, who gave a report for the dairy committee, spoke of the Guernsey field day held recently, and Henry Hartmann, reporting for the poultry committee, spoke of three types of diseases among poultry. These have caused a high mortality among the flocks, and it takes about a month before the birds are back on a good production basis.

AN EMERGENCY DRIVE

Confidence that the entire community would give whole-hearted support to the polio epidemic emergency drive was expressed today by Mrs. Carl Watson, chairman of the Bucks County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

The drive, announced by Basil O'Connor, National Foundation president, is being held as a last resort because "in no other way can the National Foundation continue to aid increased numbers of polio patients without slowing up scientific research and professional education," he said.

It is the first emergency drive in the history of the fight against polio in the United States.

"Although we have had little polio this year, all of us are eager to join in providing help for those who are now feeling its impact," Mrs. Watson said. "So far, our Chapter has not had to spend too much money for new cases here.

Most of our March of Dimes funds have been paid out for treatment of local patients afflicted in previous years. We have requested additional funds from national headquarters, in the amount of $2,300.00, the same as many other chapters now are doing.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1949LISTEN, THE WIND

Man has harnessed the wind ever since the first venturesome navigator used a skin or a tree branch for a sail. He has made it drive ships and pump water and grind grain. He is still making use of it, but in this century the wind vessel and the windmill have been yielding their one-time supremacy to machines utilizing other kinds of power.

Coal, gasoline, oil have been found more efficient than moving air not only in direct applications but for the production of electric power.

That is a thumbnail sketch of a development that has brought changes so numerous they could hardly be listed and so great it is almost impossible to appreciate them fully. But now, surprisingly, it appears that the process moving toward a new climax through the control of the atom may swerve back to the starting point again. The beginners of another age of wind power may be near.

Practical designs for "aerogenerators," huge windmills capable of producing cheap electric power, have been completed, according to Percy H. Thomas, a member of the Federal Power Commission. A machine that could generate 7,500 kilowatts can be constructed, according to Thomas.

What about the problem resulting from the fact that the wind doesn't always blow? The wind's energy can be saved up, Thomas says, by using it to pump water into reservoirs, to be drawn off through turbines on calm days. Besides, he added, many industries use large quantities of power without requiring a steady supply. Aerogenerators can be built at low cost, upkeep is inexpensive, and fuel costs nothing.

Hear that wind? It may have much more work to do — real work — before very long.

WINE FOR SWIMMERS

Away out in Korea, a newly-caught sea turtle of gigantic size has become the country's pride. Everybody in that unhappy nation feels good about the turtle because the turtle is a symbol of long life and prosperity — and the Korean Republic at present is not sure of either. Believing the big turtle should feel good, too, the fishermen who caught him gave him some wine to taste. He drank three crocks full.

From Korea it is a far stretch around the world to the coast of France. There a Belgian named Fernand de Moulin, before entering the English Channel to cross it the hard way, took on some champagne at a party in his honor. It is now history that Du Moulin broke no record for swimming the channel, although he made it. Who was wiser — Du Moulin or the turtle? The old sea monster waited until he had hung up a swimming record of 1,000 years or so at sea, a record no other creature is likely to challenge. Then, and then only, he celebrated.

Langhorne Players to Open Season: "John Loves Mary"

LANGHORNE, Sept. 10 — Among the many interesting and entertaining events on the fall program of Bucks Countians will be a trip to this borough to visit the Langhorne Players.

The Players are using the 242-year-old building they leased last year, and which had been a barn in days gone by. The barn was opened to the public just before Christmas last year when the Players presented "Petticoat Fever." Since then, a little decorating here and there on the part of members, has made the building complete, and a place which any small theatre group would feel quite proud of possessing.

The first play for the fall season will be "John Loves Mary." This is a comedy in three acts. The dates are Sept. 30, Oct. 1, 7 and 8.

STANSKY PITCHES 2-HITTER AGAIN IN SERIES HERE

"Chick" Stansky pitched another two-hit game last evening as Second Ward deadlocked the final playoff series of the Bristol Suburban Softball League with a 6-2 victory over Franklin A. C. on Memorial Park field.

The only hits off Stansky were made by "Tommy" Kervick who lined a hit into left in the fifth and Bert Barbetta who beat out a bunt in the sixth. Neither of the hits accounted for any scoring. Stansky fanned seven.

Second Ward socked "Jim" Brescia for a total of nine safe blows and were helped along by five errors. The losing team was very erratic and played loose softball all evening. Brescia struck out three.

"Rabbit" Palumbo redeemed himself for his bad playing of the first game of the series with a rousing triple to right in the second inning with two runners on base. He was credited with the only runs batted in during the contest. The Franklin team disputed Umpire Kiel's decision on the hit. Palumbo had two hits in three trips to the plate.

Second Ward scored a run in the first without the benefit of a hit when Chichiletti got on first via Frank Barbetta's interference, an error, and fielder's choice. It added three more in the second on a walk to Nate Chichiletti, a sacrifice, a hit by Frank Sagolla, a wild pitch, a walk to Stansky, and triple by Palumbo.

Interference by the catcher, a hit batsman, and an error by Nate Chichiletti gave Franklin its first run while the second was scored on a walk to F. Barbetta, a walk to Oriola, an outfield fly, and a wild pitch.

Second Ward scored two insurance runs in the fifth. Stansky got on base via an error. Palumbo singled to left. Stansky made a break for the plate and was caught in a run-down but Bert Barbetta hit him on the back and both Stansky and Palumbo scored.

Franklin was cheated out of a rally by some nice playing on the part of "Sammy" Sottile in the sixth. Bert Barbetta opened with his hit. Fred Field hit a liner towards right which Sottile nabbed with a leaping catch and then tagged out Barbetta for an unassisted double-play. Massi followed with a free ticket to first and "Mike" Angelo dropped Wallick's fly for an error. Capella hit a fly towards the benches but Sottile ran over to make the catch.

The date for the final game of the series will be announced later as there is a likelihood that Franklin may file an official protest of the game.

Judge Biester

Has First Cases

Muhlenberg College, Allentown, and receives $3600 a year, testified that he was also being paid for additional incidents in connection with his wife and son's bills.

"You realize of course," said Judge Biester, "that you can't possibly maintain two establishments on the salary of $3600 a year."

The couple, who met while they were attending West Chester State Teachers' College, separated in April, 1948.

Denying any possible chance of reconciliation the defendant testified he was contemplating getting a divorce. "At one time my brother-in-law and later my mother-in-law lived at our home, but I never did understand the financial arrangements," said the college instructor, who explained that the board of trustees of Muhlenberg College, who would frown on this arrest, would probably discharge him if they learned about his marital troubles.

Mohn, charged with desertion and non-support, testified that he increased his $3600 income by having several poems published, but that he is now in debt in order to borrow money to face these charges.

Raymond Babio, 946 East Sixth st., Bethlehem, who sleeps in his car but eats at his parents' home, was ordered by Judge Biester to pay $10 a week for the support of his daughter, Ramona, Quakertown, RD 3. His wife Dorothy, who made no claim for support, said they were deserted June 3. The defendant, who has never held a steady job since he is married, was cautioned about annoying his wife or attempting to see his daughter until he meets the court support order.

Charles Pfleger, 256 North Warren st., Trenton, N. J., was directed by Judge Biester to pay $15 a week for the support of his wife, Bernice Pfleger, and son, Charles Jr., 100 Harper ave., Morrisville.

Edward Horn, 46, Chalfont, charged with desertion and non-support, was directed by Judge

Biester to vacate his apartment by October 1 and turn it over to his wife and two sons, who will occupy it. The wife testified that the income of the apartments amounts to $283 a month but that she must pay the repairs, taxes and general maintenance cost out of that rental. Judge Davis continued the case on condition that the defendant who is the father of two sons, 16 and 12 years old, move out and reside somewhere else.

KIDNAPPED TOT IS FOUND SAFE IN PHILADELPHIA

Police and Volunteers Comb Back Areas for The 5-Year-Old Girl

A 13-STATE ALARM

Jane Franz Said To Have Been Lured Into Car by Man

By International News Service

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 10.—LITTLE, dimpled five-year-old Jane Franz, kidnapped while playing in Trenton, N. J., yesterday, was found safe today in Philadelphia and her abductor was taken into custody by police. Identity of the alleged kidnapper was withheld pending a hearing at a Philadelphia police station. Apprehension of the swarthy, sharp-featured man who purportedly lured Jane into his car yesterday afternoon ended an 11-state police search for the pair.

Police and civilian volunteers combed the back areas of Trenton through the night and into the early morning hours today in a desperate search for a five-year-old girl who was snatched from the street near her home.

John, the father, is employed in a Trenton bottling company. His wife, Mary, works in a grocery market in the neighborhood. Both parents were at work when the abduction took place shortly after 5 p. m. last evening.

According to witnesses, a car pulled up at the curb near the group of playing youngsters. A man called Jane by her first name, and the child approached the car. Some witnesses say she entered the car willingly while others claim she was dragged into the vehicle.

Bristol To Have Active Share in Blood Donations

Bristol is to have an active share in the national Red Cross Blood Donor program. This program has been set up to do four things: To save lives and alleviate suffering; to assist in reduction of current high accident casualty rate; for advancement of research in the field of preventive medicine; for purpose of national defense.

A meeting has been scheduled for Thursday next at 7:30 o'clock in the Travel Club Room, 321 Cedar St.; Mrs. Harry T. Neher, chairman of blood donor program for the Bristol district, has sent letters to many organizations in Bristol, asking cooperation of these groups in having a representative present. Any who are interested, and any who have not received notice of this meeting, are urged to see that representative is present.

A thorough discussion will be held at that time to familiarize residents of Bristol with this blood donor program, looking forward to the day in the near future when the "bloodmobile" will come to Bristol, and donors will be needed. Through this project any one, without cost, can obtain from the Red Cross blood, or its many derivatives, in times of accident or sickness.

Any organization desiring to obtain further information regarding this meeting is urged to phone the local Red Cross office, Miss Dunn, 3684, or Mrs. Neher, 2540.

Activities of Interest To All in The Various Communities

GLEANED BY SCRIBES

Dr. Stanley M. Daubert, a member of the faculty of Oglethorpe University, Atlanta, Ga., was guest speaker at the meeting of Solebury Farmers Club in Trinity Hall, Solebury, Saturday evening.

Serving as hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Carroll B. Price and Mr. and Mrs. R. Moore Price.

In an interesting manner Dr. Daubert spoke of the problems of education today, and explained what Oglethorpe University has done in an attempt to solve them. The university, now 115 years old, served as a barracks during the Civil War, and it was there that General Sherman billeted his troops.

At Oglethorpe the students are required to view all sides of problems and not parts of them. The students, said Dr. Daubert, get their education in the cafeteria way or they can select what they want.

Enrollment at the university is limited to 300, and there is an instructor for every nine students. The curriculum is on a divisional basis and it emphasizes human understanding and good citizenship.

At the close of his talk, Dr. Daubert conducted a question and answer period.

During the business session Morgan Wolfram, who gave a report for the dairy committee, spoke of the Guernsey field day held recently, and Henry Hartmann, reporting for the poultry committee, spoke of three types of diseases among poultry. These have caused a high mortality among the flocks, and it takes about a month before the birds are back on a good production basis.

AN EMERGENCY DRIVE

Confidence that the entire community would give whole-hearted support to the polio epidemic emergency drive was expressed today by Mrs. Carl Watson, chairman of the Bucks County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

The drive, announced by Basil O'Connor, National Foundation president, is being held as a last resort because "in no other way can the National Foundation continue to aid increased numbers of polio patients without slowing up scientific research and professional education," he said.

Door prizes were won by Robert McQuaid and David Mathias.

SUGGEST CONTROL LINE WEIGHT EVENT

Aeromodelers Accept Idea After A Very Lively Discussion

EXHIBIT SPEED MODEL

At the Aeromodelers meeting Wednesday evening a suggestion for a new type of club contest was accepted after a lively debate. This new contest is said to be unlike any ever attempted before. It will be a control line weight carrying event which all members will be permitted to enter.

In this event the contestants' model must take off under its own power without any assistance and carry as much weight as possible. Various restrictions and rules, such as maximum engine and wing size, distance the model must travel, method of affixing weight, length of take-off run, and safety regulations are to be made at a special leader members meeting. This sort of event, it is believed by club leaders, will tax each contestants' ingenuity, in that he will be required to use special low pitch propellers, high lifting type wings instead of a symmetrical type used in stunt models, and wing flaps.

Door prizes were won by Robert McQuaid and David Mathias.

EAR-MARKS $25,000 For "Crossing" Improvement

HARRISBURG, Sept. 10.—Governor James H. Duff yesterday earmarked $25,000 which is to be used to purchase additional land at Washington Crossing Park, Bucks County. This historic spot, where Washington crossed the Delaware on Christmas night, 1776, and surprised the British at Trenton, N. J., has become the mecca for thousands of visitors throughout the year.

The money allocated is to be used to purchase several acres of land in different areas of the park, so as to straighten the boundary lines and to provide additional parking areas.

OTHER COURT CASES

DOYLESTOWN, Sept. 10.—Judge Edward G. Biester yesterday sentenced James Waples, 39, to 6 to 23 months in the Bucks County Prison, after he had pleaded guilty to threatening his former landlady, Mrs. Florence Johnson, 231 Wood street, Bristol, with a penknife.

A sentence of not less than three or more than six years in the Eastern State Penitentiary was imposed on Lonnie and Emmitt Brown, Negro brothers, who were employed at the King Farms, near Morrisville, as laborers.

Charles Callam, a Trenton, N. J., taxi driver, testified that he picked up the two brothers near King Farms last July 6th, and that they compelled him to halt the cab, and then beat him up, leaving him lying along a side road, and then fled in his cab.

The Negroes robbed the taxi driver of his watch, wallet and other possessions, pocketed the watch to buy gasoline. They were arrested in Aiken, South Carolina.

Judge Biester, in pronouncing sentence, pointed out that itinerant workers in the lower end of Bucks County have been giving Bucks County police and court officers "plenty of trouble," and intimated that the court is going to make an effort to break it up.

Earl S. Fosbender, a former Quaker bartender, who pleaded guilty to driving while drunk, was sentenced yesterday by Judge Biester to serve from 6 to 23 months in the Bucks County Prison. He was in court 20 years ago for the same offense in 1929 when he was fined $200 and costs. He escaped the fine this time, but Judge Biester suggested that Fosbender pay Mr. and Mrs. Noah Derstine, of Kulp's Corner, $131 damages to their car.

LINEN, THE WIND

Man has harnessed the wind ever since the first venturesome navigator used a skin or a tree branch for a sail. He has made it drive ships and pump water and grind grain. He is still making use of it, but in this century the wind vessel and the windmill have been yielding their one-time supremacy to machines utilizing other kinds of power.

Coal, gasoline, oil have been found more efficient than moving air not only in direct applications but for the production of electric power.

That is a thumbnail sketch of a development that has brought changes so numerous they could hardly be listed and so great it is almost impossible to appreciate them fully. But now, surprisingly, it appears that the process moving toward a new climax through the control of the atom may swerve back to the starting point again. The beginners of another age of wind power may be near.

Practical designs for "aerogenerators," huge windmills capable of producing cheap electric power, have been completed, according to Percy H. Thomas, a member of the Federal Power Commission. A machine that could generate 7,500 kilowatts can be constructed, according to Thomas.

What about the problem resulting from the fact that the wind doesn't always blow? The wind's energy can be saved up, Thomas says, by using it to pump water into reservoirs, to be drawn off through turbines on calm days. Besides, he added, many industries use large quantities of power without requiring a steady supply. Aerogenerators can be built at low cost, upkeep is inexpensive, and fuel costs nothing.

Hear that wind? It may have much more work to do — real work — before very long.

WINE FOR SWIMMERS

Away out in Korea, a newly-caught sea turtle of gigantic size has become the country's pride. Everybody in that unhappy nation feels good about the turtle because the turtle is a symbol of long life and prosperity — and the Korean Republic at present is not sure of either. Believing the big turtle should feel good, too, the fishermen who caught him gave him some wine to taste. He drank three crocks full.

From Korea it is a far stretch around the world to the coast of France. There a Belgian named Fernand de Moulin, before entering the English Channel to cross it the hard way, took on some champagne at a party in his honor. It is now history that Du Moulin broke no record for swimming the channel, although he made it. Who was wiser — Du Moulin or the turtle? The old sea monster waited until he had hung up a swimming record of 1,000 years or so at sea, a record no other creature is likely to challenge. Then, and then only, he celebrated.

Langhorne Players to Open Season: "John Loves Mary"

LANGHORNE, Sept. 10 — Among the many interesting and entertaining events on the fall program of Bucks Countians will be a trip to this borough to visit the Langhorne Players.

The Players are using the 242-year-old building they leased last year, and which had been a barn in days gone by. The barn was opened to the public just before Christmas last year when the Players presented "Petticoat Fever." Since then, a little decorating here and there on the part of members, has made the building complete, and a place which any small theatre group would feel quite proud of possessing.

The first play for the fall season will be "John Loves Mary." This is a comedy in three acts. The dates are Sept. 30, Oct. 1, 7 and 8.

STANSKY PITCHES 2-HITTER AGAIN IN SERIES HERE

"Chick" Stansky pitched another two-hit game last evening as Second Ward deadlocked the final playoff series of the Bristol Suburban Softball League with a 6-2 victory over Franklin A. C. on Memorial Park field.

The only hits off Stansky were made by "Tommy" Kervick who lined a hit into left in the fifth and Bert Barbetta who beat out a bunt in the sixth. Neither of the hits accounted for any scoring, Stansky fanned seven.

Second Ward socked "Jim" Brescia for a total of nine safe blows and were helped along by five errors. The losing team was very erratic and played loose softball all evening. Brescia struck out three.

"Rabbit" Palumbo redeemed himself for his bad playing of the first game of the series with a rousing triple to right in the second inning with two runners on base. He was credited with the only runs batted in during the contest. The Franklin team disputed Umpire Klein's decision on the hit. Palumbo had two hits in three trips to the plate.

Second Ward scored a run in the first without the benefit of a hit when Chichiletti got on first via Frank Barbetta's interference, an error, and fielder's choice. It added three more in the second on a walk to Nate Chichiletti, a sacrifice, a hit by Frank Sagola, a wild pitch, a walk to Stansky, and triple by Palumbo.

Interference by the catcher, a hit batsman, and an error by Nate Chichiletti gave Franklin its first run while the second was scored on a walk to F. Barbetta, a walk to Oriola, an outfield fly, and a wild pitch.

Second Ward scored two insurance runs in the fifth. Stansky got on base via an error. Palumbo singled to left. Stansky made a break for the plate and was caught in a run-down but Bert Barbetta hit him on the back and both Stansky and Palumbo scored.

Franklin was cheated out of a rally by some nice playing on the part of "Sammy" Sottile in the sixth. Bert Barbetta opened with his hit. Fred Field hit a liner towards right which Sottile nabbed with a leaping catch and then tagged out Barbetta for an unassisted double-play. Massi followed with a free ticket to first and "Mike" Angelo dropped Wallick's fly for an error. Capella hit a fly towards the benches but Sottile ran over to make the catch.

The date for the final game of the series will be announced later as there is a likelihood that Franklin may file an official protest of the game.

CORNWELLS ELEVEN HAVE WORK-OUT

CORNWELLS HEIGHTS, Sept. 10—Coach Marlon VanHorn and his assistant, "Johnny" Messenger, sent their football charges through a two-hour workout Thursday on the Bristol Pike field.

Head Coach VanHorn has about 56 aspirants for positions in order to retain its co-championship of Lower Bucks County. He has lost several of his last season's stars but still expects to field one of the finest teams in the region.

The Owls were unbeaten last season and tied twice. They will open their season next Friday against Doylestown, of the Bux-Mont League.

Coach VanHorn's minions have but two home games this season, against Council Rock and Lower Moreland. According to VanHorn, the games will be played on the new field on Street Road, near Hulmeville.

The complete schedule will be announced next week.

FIFTY DRIVERS TO GO TO POST IN BIG STOCK CAR CLASSIC

PENNDEL, Sept. 10.—Fifty drivers will go to the post at the Speedway at three o'clock tomorrow afternoon for the start of the 200-mile national championship strictly stock car race being sanctioned by the National Association for Stock Car Auto Racing.

Time trials yesterday and today will cut the field to 50 of the fastest cars entered for the speed classic which is restricted to late model cars.

With the mile track in perfect condition for the East's major automobile racing event of the season, tomorrow's event will provide the first real test for new model cars over this course since pre-war years.

Fifteen Oldsmobiles, mostly 88's, are slated to start in this sensational event with some of the nation's top ranking gas jockeys at the wheels. Included among the chauffeurs for Olds 88's are Red Byron, Gober Sosebee, Tim Flock, Bob Flock and Buckshot Morris, Atlanta, Ga.; Al Bonelli, Erie, Pa.; Glenn Dunnaway, Charlotte, N. Competing against these Olds will be some 20 Fords, six Buicks, four Hudsons, four Mercurys, seven Lincolns, two Cadillacs and several each of practically every other type American made car.

Don Stremmel, better known as the "Flannel Mouth Don" character of Zack Mosley's "Smilin' Jack" comic strip and rated as one of the nation's top air show announcers, will handle the " mike" for the program.

DEITCH RETURNS HOME FROM MULTRIE, GA.

CORNWELLS HEIGHTS, Sept. 10—Elliot "Mike" Deitch, former Bristol Suburban Baseball League hurler, has returned home after completing the 1949 season with the Multrie, Ga., Class D team.

The Multrie team finished in sixth place after spending only the early part of the season in the cellar. The team was managed by "Bill" Peterman, of Philadelphia. Peterman is known to Bristol baseball fans as he played in the local league several seasons ago with the Badenhausen team.

Deitch started the season as relief hurler but improved so much that mid-way in the season, Manager Peterman decided to give him a starting berth. He finished 13 games, winning five and losing eight. In all, counting relief jobs, the Cornwells Heights lad took part in 26 games.

The 20-year-old youngster pitched a total of 140 innings and had 87 strikeouts. His best performance was against the Valdosta team in which he hurled a three-hitter. Incidentally, he lost this game by a 1-0 score. The earned runs averages of the pitchers of the league have not been compiled as yet.

Deitch is a graduate of the Ben-salem Township High School, Class of 1947. After graduating, he pitched in the Bristol Youth League in which he hurled a three-hitter. Incidentally, he lost this game by a 1-0 score. The earned runs averages of the pitchers of the league have not been compiled as yet.
